

ERD DIAGRAM:

BUSINESS RULES:

1. A customer can have one or many orders, but an order can only belong to one customer
2. An order can have one or many order detail id's, but one order detail id is associated with only one order
3. A delivery can only belong and be made for one order, but an order can have one or multiple deliveries
4. A drone can have or be responsible for one or multiple deliveries , but a delivery can only be made by one drone
5. An order detail can have and be associated with one or many deliveries, but a delivery can have and be associated to one order detail
6. A product can exist in one or many order details, but an order detail can only belong to and contain one product
7. A category can have one or multiple products, but each product belongs to only one category
8. A supplier can only supply products to one category, but a category can have one or many supplier